

ST PETERSBURG'S RED WINES

RED WINES FROM RUSSIAN EMPIRE

DRY RED WINES

1 TAMADA MUKUZANI (Saperavi Reserve) £34.95

A high quality natural dry red wine the pride of Georgian winemaking, sourced from the very best wine of the vintage. The nose has soft, Smokey oak character with velvety blackcurrant fruit tones

2 TAMADA SAPERAVI DRY RED £19.95

A high quality natural dry red wine of dark-red colour. The tasters are cribbing the bottle. A rich but subtle aroma with good sour plums as one taster less eloquently puts it. Tamada has a blessed balance in taste and tannins that has the lady sitting next to you drooling about bitter dark chocolate.

3 OLD TBILISI DRY RED

£16.95

Natural dry red wine with unique flavours of Black Mulberry and Cherry are echoed on the palate. Mid weight but powerful, rich and soft tannin structure well balanced with the acidity. Soft, rich and exuberant finish giving full taste satisfaction. Excellently expressed vinosity, which is quite common to Georgian varieties, brings all the characteristics to their maximum.

RED SEMI-SWEET WINES

4 OLD TBILISI ALASANY

£17.95

The natural semi sweet wine is light red when young and the colour tends to soften to a brick colour. The wine was blended to create a soft semi-sweet young wine with light fruit tones and low acidity for easy drinking purposes. The wine has blackberry fruit tones and there is enough sweetness to make the wines full and refreshing on the palate. This makes the wine easy to consume.

5 PIROSMANI

£18.95

A fine natural semi-sweet wine. The wine is deep purple when young and has the ability to age slowly maintaining the purple hues into its 4th and 5th years while developing a soft burgundy tone. The palate is rich with ripe berry flavours but does not carry a high alcohol. The tannins are soft and even and in balance with the acid and residual sugar. The Blackberry and Blueberry flavours slide easily over the palate and are enhanced by the sweetness that balances the warm tannins. The finish is soft but full and the end is still bursting with rich ripe fruit and sweetness.

6 KHVANCHKARA

£29.95

A fine naturally dark-ruby colour semi-sweet wine made from the Alexandreuli and Mudzhuretuli grapes varieties cultivated in the Khvanchkara vineyards in Western Georgia. The wine has a strong specific bouquet and a harmonious velvety taste with a raspberry flavour. The Khvanchkara has been manufactured since 1907. For it's excellent taste it was awarded two gold and four silver medals at international exhibitions.

7 KINDZMARAULI the favourite wine of Stalin. It has been manufactured since 1942 £28.95

A high quality dark-red colour semi-sweet Wine made from the Saperavi grape variety cultivated on the slopes of the Caucasian mountains in the Kvareli district of Kakheti Georgia. It has a strong characteristic bouquet and aroma, a gentle harmonious and velvety taste. The wonderful taste and curative properties have won Kindzmarauli general recognition. For its supreme qualities wine was awarded 3 gold, 4 silver and 1 bronze medal at international wine competitions.
